

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY AND VIGIL MECHANISM OF VISAGAR POLYTEX LIMITED

1. PREFACE

- 1.1 Visagar Polytex Limited (hereinafter referred to “VPL” or “Company” in this document) believes in conducting all its affairs in a fair and transparent manner, by adopting highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behaviour. The Company has adopted a Code of Conduct for Directors and Senior Management Personnel (“the Code”), which lays down the principles and standards that should govern the actions of the Directors and Senior Management Personnel. Any actual or potential violation of the Code, howsoever insignificant or perceived as such, is a matter of serious concern for the Company. Such a vigil mechanism shall provide for adequate safeguards against victimization of persons who use such mechanism and also make provision for direct access to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee in appropriate or exceptional cases.
- 1.2 The Company is committed to comply with Section 177 (9) of the Companies Act, 2013 which requires every listed company and such class or classes of companies, as may be prescribed to establish a vigil mechanism for the directors and employees to report genuine concerns and providing proper safeguards and access to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee in the manner as provided in sub section (10).
- 1.3 Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement between listed companies and the Stock Exchanges, inter alia, provides for a mandatory requirement for all listed companies to establish a mechanism called “Whistle Blower Policy” for employees to report to the management instances of unethical behaviour, actual or suspected, fraud or violation of the Company’s code of conduct.

2. POLICY

In compliance of the above requirements, VPL, being a Listed Company has established a Vigil Mechanism/ Whistle Blower Policy in order to provide a framework to protect such whistleblowers who wishes to raise a concern about serious irregularities within the Company.

3. POLICY OBJECTIVES

- 3.1 To provide a platform to Directors and Employees to raise their genuine concerns regarding any irregularity, misconduct or unethical matters / dealings within the group which have a negative bearing on the organisation either financially or otherwise.
- 3.2 To encourage all its stakeholders to communicate and raise any behavior or practice, they may be aware of and suspect to be unethical, illegal or otherwise inappropriate and harmful to the company to an internal authority so that action can be taken immediately to resolve the problem.

10. EXCLUSIONS

- 10.1 Anonymous Complaints: Complainants must provide their name and contact details with each complaint. Investigations of the complaints are not possible unless the source of information is identified especially since such source is critical for reporting back. Hence, complaints received anonymously will not be investigated, however, that does not preclude the Chairman of the Audit Committee to initiate the investigation independently considering the seriousness of the issue raised and/or the extent of evidence provided.
- 10.2 Reporting of matters of personal nature, either personal or matters regarding other person(s), which are in no way connected to the ethical wellbeing of the Organization.

11. INVESTIGATION

- 11.1 All Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy will be recorded and thoroughly investigated by the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Company who will investigate / oversee the investigations under the authorization of the Audit Committee. If any Member of the Audit Committee has a conflict of interest in any given case, then he/she should recuse himself/herself and the other members of the Audit Committee should deal with the matter on hand.
- 11.2 The Vigilance and Ethics Officer / Chairman of the Audit Committee may at its discretion, consider involving any Investigators for the purpose of investigation.
- 11.3 The decision to conduct an investigation taken by the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / Chairman of the Audit Committee is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process. The outcome of the investigation may not support the conclusion of the Whistle blower that an improper or unethical act was committed.
- 11.4 The identity of a Subject will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.
- 11.5 Subject(s) will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.
- 11.6 Subject(s) shall have a duty to co-operate with the Vigilance and Ethics Officer/ Chairman of the Audit Committee or any of the Investigators during investigation to the extent that such co-operation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.

- 11.7 Subject(s) have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the Vigilance and Ethics Officer / Investigators and/or members of the Audit Committee and/or the Whistle blower. Subject(s) shall be free at any time to engage counsel at his/her own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings.
- 11.8 Subject(s) have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subjects.
- 11.9 Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subject(s) will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against Subject(s) shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
- 11.10 Subject(s) have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation. If allegations are not sustained, the Subject should be consulted as to whether public disclosure of the investigation results would be in the best interest of the Subject and the Company.
- 11.11 The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure

12. PROTECTION TO WHISTLE BLOWER

- 12.1 VPL prohibits and discourages the retribution against anyone for raising or for helping to address integrity concerns. A genuine whistle blower is protected from any damage to his/her career, name or reputation.
- 12.2 No unfair treatment will be meted out to a Whistle Blower by virtue of his/ her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this policy.
- 12.3 Harassment or victimization of the whistle blower will not be tolerated and could constitute sufficient grounds for disciplinary action including dismissal of the Employee, causing such harassment.
- 12.4 Every effort will be made to protect the identity of the Subject(s) and the Whistle Blower to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.
- 12.5 Whistle blowers are encouraged to immediately report any acts of retribution that have happened to them, due to the fact that they made a disclosure.
- 12.6 Any other Employee assisting in the said investigation shall also be protected to the same extent as the Whistle Blower.

13. DECISION AND REPORTING

- 13.1 If an investigation leads the Vigilance and Ethics Officer/ Chairman of the Audit Committee to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Vigilance and Ethics Officer/ Chairman of the Audit Committee shall recommend the management of the Company to take such disciplinary or corrective action as they may deem fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures.

13.2 The Ethics Officer shall submit a report to the Audit Committee on a regular basis about all Protected Disclosures referred to him/her since the last report together with the results of investigations, if any.

14. REPORTING & REVIEW

The competent Authority shall submit a quarterly report of the protected disclosures, received and of the investigation conducted and of the action taken to the Audit Committee for review.

15. ACCESS TO CHAIRMAN OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Whistle Blower shall have right to access Chairman of the Audit Committee directly in exceptional cases and the Chairman of the Audit Committee is authorized to prescribe suitable directions in this regard.

16. RETENTION OF DOCUMENTS

All Protected Disclosures in writing or documented along with the results of investigation relating thereto shall be retained by the Company for a minimum period of seven (7) years or such other period as specified by any other law in force, whichever is more.

17. CONFIDENTIALITY

The complainant, Vigilance Officer, Members of Audit Committee, the Subject and everybody involved in the process shall, maintain confidentiality of all matters under this Policy, discuss only to the extent or with those persons as required under this policy for completing the process of investigations and keep the papers in safe custody.

18. AMENDMENT

The Company reserves its right to amend or modify this Policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. However, no such amendment or modification will be binding on the Employees and Directors unless the same is notified to the Employees and Directors in writing.
